(b) if so, the details thereof and the reasons therefor, State-wise; and

(c) the corrective steps being taken in this regard?

Answer

MINISTER OF CONSUMER AFFAIRS, FOOD & PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION
(SHRI RAM VILAS PASWAN)

(a) & (b): No Madam. No such reports have been received from State Governments regarding removal of poor families from the ambit of subsidised food grains.
(c): For better targeting of food subsidy, removing bogus ration cards, ensuring timely availability of food grains, check on leakage and diversion of foodgrains, introducing public accountability, etc., Government has taken various steps in implementation of Targeted Public Distribution System (TPDS) in States/Union Territories (UTs). The TPDS (Control) Order, 2015 mandates the State/UTs to take action for smooth functioning of TPDS. The National Food Security Act (NFSA), 2013 also prescribes essential reforms in the TPDS and accordingly, government has taken up with States/UTs for implementing measures such as door-step delivery of foodgrains, correct identification of beneficiaries, monitoring and vigilance, improving viability of fair price shops operations. Further, with a view to modernising the system, the Government is implementing a plan scheme on end-to-end computerisation of TPDS operations.
